The Debentures in question are not Govt securities under Reg VIII of 1925 - In transferring them to persons not producing a Succn certificate, the Municipality would be taking some risk in that the law does not provide for a valid discharge in such cases. Of course, if proper enquiries are made, the amounts paid to rightful claimants, the risk taken is not very great

There appears to be no legal objection in allowing the Municipalities, if they so agree, to take some risk in such cases, especially when the amount involved is small.

Sir,

In forwarding herewith a copy of letter No. 94/29-30 dated 15th January 1930 received from the President. Chitaldrug Municipal council re empowering the President of the Municipal Council to transfer bonds issued by the Municipality to the heirs of the deceased bond holders &c, I have the honor to state that it was brought to the notice of the Municipal council that much inconvenience is being caused to the heirs of the holders of the Chitaldrug water supply loan debentures (of small demominations) when they were asked to produce the succession certificate issued by a court of law before such debentures were transferred to their names The question thereupon came up before the Municipal council at their meeting held on 30th November 1929 when they resolved that the President may transfer (up to a limit of Rs 1000) the debentures to the names of the heirs of the deceased holders. A copy of the resolution of the Municipal council is enclosed for reference.

Government have in their order No.L 6237-45/L B.118-24-20 dated 7th April 1928 authorised the Presidents of District Boards to transfer the debenture bonds and ad-interim order of the denomination of not exceeding Rs 1000 in each case to the heirs of the deceased holders on production of a certificate of heirship granted by the Amildar and countersigned by the Deputy Commissioner.

Under the circumstances I request that the President of the Chitaldrug Municipal Council may be empowered with similar powers as resolved by the Municipal council.

I have the h

The Hecty would be taking some risk, in that the law does not provide for a valid discharge in such cases. The risk is of course not very great, if proper enquiries are made and the transfer is made to rightful claimants. The Hecty may accordingly be informed that there is no legal objection to the transfer of the bonds, if they agree to take some risk in such cases, especially when the amount involved is small.
